The vertebral column (Spondylochele) (Spondylo Column)

The vertebral column consists of bone and connective tissue. The spinal cord that is surrounded and protected consists of nervous and connective tissues. The total number of vertebrae during early development is 33. As a child grows several vertebrae in the sacral and coccygeal regions fuse. As a result, the adult vertebral column typically consists of 26 vertebrae.

- * 7 Cervical Vertebrae: Present in the neck region. Movable in nature. Five smaller than all other vertebrae except those that form the coccyx.
- * 12 Thoracic Vertebrae: Present in the chest region. Movable in nature. Larger and stouter than cervical vertebrae.
- * 5 Lumbar Vertebrae: Support those lower limbs. Movable in nature. Larger and stouter of the vertebrae bones in the vertebral column.

Case study: PharmD students are playing role in bridging the gap between the physician and the patient by providing various clinical services using their clinical knowledge and practices skills. Case studies are written descriptions of an intensive study about a patient's real-life problems or pre- defined case scenarios. The details of the patient present history, past history, social history, allergic history, etc. which are encountered during the ward round and patient interaction are noted. The students are actively involved in the analysis of the collected cases, reviewing subjective-objective parameters of the patient, analyzing the provisional diagnosis, differential diagnosis, and comparing the treatment chart with given standard treatment guidelines. The case study learning will primarily help the students to develop skills of critical thinking, decision making, problem-based learning to generate an in-depth understanding of a complex issue in real life context, to rule out the possible drug-drug interactions, drug-food interactions, drug interventions cost benefit analysis and ADR's. the use of case studies and other clinical activities will enhance the development of essential skills necessary to practice in any setting of the health care system, manage care pharmacy, community pharmacy, hospital pharmacy.

INTRODUCTION
 Medicinal plants are various plants thought by some to have medicinal properties, but few plants or their phytochemical constituents have been proven by rigorous science or approved by regulatory agencies such as the United States Food and Drug Administration or European Food Safety Authority to have medicinal effects. World Health Organization (WHO) has provided a definition of medicinal plants, that is "A medicinal plant is any plant which, in one or more of its organs, contains substances that can be used for therapeutic purposes or which are precursors for synthesis of useful drugs." World Health Organization (WHO) reported that 80% of the world's population depends on medicinal plants for their primary health care. In the Plant Kingdom, Medicinal plants form the largest single grouping of plants. It is estimated that 30,000 species worldwide fall in this group, of which around 33% are trees. Plants are known to be the source of many chemical compounds. Medicinal plants were used by people of ancient cultures without knowledge of their active ingredients. The common practice of taking crude extract orally is laden with hazards as the extracts may contain some toxic constituents. There is an ever increasing need to find toxic clinical drugs. In modern times, the active ingredients and curative actions of medicinal plants were first investigated through the use of European Scientific methods. The most important ingredients present in plant communities turn out to be alkaloids, terpenoids, steroids, phenols glycosides and tannins.

The information obtained from extracts of medicinal plants makes pharmacological studies possible. The mode of action of plants producing therapeutic effects can also be better investigated if the active ingredients are characterized. Infectious diseases are the leading cause of death worldwide. The clinical efficiency of many existing antibiotics is being threatened by the emergence of antibiotic resistant pathogens. Bacterial pathogens have of numerous defense mechanisms against antimicrobial agents and resistance to old and newly produced drug is on the rise. The increasing incidence of chemotherapeutics and antibiotic resistance exhibited by pathogenic microbial infections agents has led to the screening of several medicinal plants for their potential antimicrobial activity. There are several reports in the literature regarding the antimicrobial activity of crude extracts prepared from plants. Plants produce a diverse range of bioactive molecules making them a rich source of different types of medicines. Higher plants as sources of medicinal compounds have continued to play a dominant role in the maintenance of human health care since ancient times. Over 50% of all modern clinical drugs are of natural product origin and natural products play a vital role in modern drug development in the pharmaceutical industry.

1.1.1 History of plants in medicine<sup>[1]</sup>

The earliest known medical document is a 4000-year-old Sumerian clay tablet that recorded plant remedies for various diseases. The ancient Egyptian Ebers papyrus from 1500 year ago lists hundreds of remedies. The Pao-tsu contains thousands of herbal cures attributed to Shennong, China's legendary emperor who lived 4300 years ago. In India, herbal medicine dates back several thousand years to the Rig Veda, the collection of Hindu sacred verses. The Ebers Manuscript is an illustrated document that reports the medicinal medical knowledge of the Ancients. Western medicine can be traced back to the Greek physician Hippocrates, who believed that diseases had natural causes and used various herbal remedies in his treatments. Early Roman writings also influenced the development of western medicine, especially the works of Dioscorides, who compiled information on more than 600 species of plants with medicinal value in the Materia Medica. Many of the herbal remedies used by the Greeks and Romans were effective treatments that have become incorporated into modern medicine (e.g., willow bark tea, the precursor to aspirin). Dioscorides' work contained the standard medical references in Asia of Europe for the next 1500 years.

The beginning of the Renaissance saw a revival of herbalism, the identification of medicinally useful plants. This coupled with the invention of the printing press in 1450 ushered in the Age of Herbs. Many of the herbs were richly illustrated, all of them based on the medicinal uses of plants, but also included much information and observation. The Doctrine of Signatures, for example, held that the medicinal use of plants could be ascertained by recognizing of the plant that corresponded to human anatomy. For example, the red juice of Monarda suggests that it should be used for blood disorders; the lethal appearance of Monarda suggests that it should be used to treat liver complaints; the "hammered" form of mandarin root suggests that it should be used to promote milk supply and breast expansion.

Many of the remedies employed by the herbalists provided effective treatments. Studies of Sanguine for the treatment of dizziness (congenital heart failure) set the standard for pharmaceutical chemistry. In the 19th century, scientists began purifying the active extracts from medicinal plants (e.g. the isolation of morphine from the opium poppy). Advances in the

Pharmacovigilance

ABSTRACT

Pharmacovigilance (PV) is very significant and inevitable part of drug discovery and development, which requires comprehensive documentation process and severe monitoring at every phase of drug development including risk management and pre & post-authorization safety studies. The number of Adverse Drug Reaction (ADR) reported resulted in an increase in the volume of data handled, and to understand the Pharmacovigilance, a high level of expertise is required to rapidly detect drug risks as well as to defend the product against an inappropriate removal. Though India has its own Pharmacovigilance Program since 2010, there are certain deficiencies in the framework for ADR from the perspective of pharma industry, healthcare professional and general public due to which adverse events for marketed drugs are highly underreported.

Programme roadmap and targets

Potential sources of Errors in Pharmaceutical Care

- ❑ Handwriting of prescriptions
- ❑ Prescribing doctors missing information on other prescriptions of patients (drug interactions)
- ❑ Similar-sounding and look-alike names and packages of medication
- ❑ Level of Stress on workplace
- ❑ Unclear records in information system
- ❑ Bad system of stock alignment/organization
- ❑ Disruptions in information availability and flow

How to Report ??

- ❑ Through ADR reporting form available online on PvPI website
- ❑ PvPI helpline number (18001803024) on weekdays from 9:00 am to 5:30 pm
- ❑ The mobile Android application for ADR reporting has also been made available to the public

Conclusions PV helps to the patients get well and to manage optimally or ideally, avoid illness is a collective responsibility of industry, drug regulators, clinicians and healthcare professionals to enhance their contribution to public health. Pro-active Pharmacovigilance is

Software: Different software is used such as Ex-Pharm which is mainly used to perform pharmacology experiments or practical. With the help of this software students can perform Pharmacological experiments through “Computer Assisted Learning (CAL)” and “Animal Stimulation” without harming the animals. The modules in this software can be used to demonstrate effect of drugs on different animal systems. The software is being used and tested by pharmacologist from many years. The package is user friendly highly interactive and full of animated sequences, which make stimulation appear realistic. There is another software used which is known as Clinirex. It is currently the only tool which is used by the doctor of pharmacy students providing documentation and drug information in one platform.

6.5.2 Catering to Student Diversity

6.5.2.1(1) Process to identify advance learners and slow learners:

- The Institution acknowledges the importance of accommodating diverse student needs in practical educational environments.
- To effectively navigate the various challenges for students to face educators and administrators and to implement engaging activities that promote inclusivity.
- A mentor-mentee system has been introduced to ensure that diverse students receive tailored assessments. This system enables mentors to continuously evaluate student progress throughout their academic journey.
- Moreover, students initial learning capabilities are evaluated based on their performance in entrance examinations.
- Advanced and slower learners are identified by faculty members through internal assessments, annual examinations, and their active participation in class or practical sessions.
- Tailored strategies are then implemented on a subject, paper, and practical basis to support the needs of both advanced and slower learners.

Various steps involved for advanced learners:

- All the departments in their respective areas conduct various activities to channelize the students in their respective field.
- Students are facilitated MOOC courses to encourage them.
- Students are given many opportunities to develop their skills by conducting various activities.
- Bright students are encouraged to bag the university rank.
- All the toppers are encouraged with the certificates of appreciation.
- By analyzing student's capabilities, they are encouraged to attend many competitive exams such as IELTS, GATE, GPAT, TOFEL etc.

Various steps involved for slow learners:

- During the admission process, students needs and requirement are analyzed by interacting with them and their parents.
- To check the regularity of the students and their performance, every 15-20 students are being allotted to a faculty.
- PCR i.e. Parent Communication Registers are maintained by the faculty mentors to keep the parents informed about their wards performance.
- Easy notes are uploaded by the subject faculty members for student's reference after a keen verification by a committee of experts.
- In order to overcome the learning difficulties of slow learners, special and remedial classes are conducted by the college.
- Mock tests are regularly conducted to help student face the final exams.

INDUSTRY MENTORSHIP CELL IMC

VISION

To strengthen the relationship between Industry and our Institute, and provide an excellent platform for both the students as well as the faculty members to understand and meet industry expectations. Industry-Institute interaction is the most ideal platform for mutual growth of industries as well as institutions. The objective of the IMC is to reduce the gap between industry expectations (practice) and academic offerings (theory) by direct involvement of industry.

A Healthy interaction between Pharmacy institutions and industry is the need of the hour. This will have great bearing on the Pharma Curriculum, exposure of industrial practices to Pharmacy students and subsequent placement of young graduating Pharmacists in industries across the country. With the advent of globalization and opening up of Indian economy to outside world, competition among industries has grown up. To solve manufacturing problems they look up now to Pharma Institutions. Similarly, there is an urgent need to prepare Pharmacy students for jobs in multinational companies, by exposing them to newer technologies, and research methodologies. These objectives can only be achieved by bridging the gap between industry and the academic institute.

MISSION

To bridge the gap between Industry and Institute.

To give industry exposure to faculty and students, thus enabling them to tune their knowledge to cope with the industrial challenges.

To organize on site training for the students.

To arrange industry relevant seminars/ visits/ workshops/ guest lectures.

_____ To have MoU's (Memorandum of Understanding) between the institute and industries to _____ facilitate joint research work and interdisciplinary research work.

To share the experience and expertise between institutions and industry for mutual benefit.

To focus on the research areas that are relevant to the industry.

FUNCTIONS

Establishment of Industry Mentorship Cell.

Organizing Workshops, conferences and symposia with joint participation of the faculty, student and the industry.

Encouraging experts from industry to visit our Institution and share their experiences and knowledge.

Organizing visits of staff members to various industries.

Promoting Professional consultancy by the faculty to industries.

Visit of faculty & technicians at site in industry for collaborative research projects.

Promoting collaborative research programmes and field studies by faculty and people from industries.

Visits of faculty to industry for discussions/ delivering lectures on subjects of mutual interest.

Memorandum of Understanding between the Institute and industries for mutual growth.

Inviting guest faculty from industries.

Inviting industries to sponsor scientific sessions/ workshops of Institute.

Inviting industries to invest into R & D for collaborative research at the Institute.

Promoting Scholarships/fellowships instituted by industries at the Institute for students.

Organizing Industrial visits for practical training of students in industries. Such visits would help students to gain knowledge on various departments of the industry like manufacturing, quality control aspects of the formulation.

To educate and train students on managerial and entrepreneurial skills.

(referred to herein as "Parties" or indivjdually as "Party")

(II) Notwithstanding the preceding sub-clause hereof, either Party may incur liability towards the other Party in connection with matters outside of this Memorandum, which may include but are not limited to liability in relation to breach of contract, tort, or equity.

(III) In the event that a Party ("First Party") is in possession of any equipment, materials, documents, intellectual property, data or other information ("Items") that are the property of the other Party ("Second Party"), then the First Party must promptly return all Items to the Second Party, or destroy any Items if directed to do so by the Second Party; and

(8) COSTS

Unless otherwise expressly provided in writing, each Party is responsible for its own costs of complying with this Memorandum and in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Memorandum.

(9) FORCE MAJEURE

If and to the extent that a Party's performance of any of its obligations under this MOU, hindered or delayed by fire, flood, earthquake, elements of nature or acts of God, Pandemic, acts of war, terrorism, riots, civil disorders, rebellions or revolutions, or any other similar cause beyond the reasonable control of such Party (each, a "Force Majeure Event"), and such non-performance, hindrance or delay could not have been prevented by reasonable precautions, then the non-performing, hindered or delayed Party will be excused for such non-performance, hindrance or delay, as applicable, of those obligations effected by the Force Majeure Event for as long as such Force Majeure Event continues and such Party continues to use its best efforts to recommence performance whenever and to whatever extent possible without delay, including through the use of alternate sources, workarounds plans or other means. The Party whose performance is prevented, hindered or delayed by a Force Majeure Event will immediately notify the other Parties of the occurrence of the Force Majeure Event and describe in reasonable detail the nature of the Force Majeure Event.

If the Force Majeure Event continues for a continuous period exceeding 30 (thirty) days, the Parties shall mutually agree on the future course of action. However, despite all efforts made by the Parties in good faith, if the Force Majeure Event continues for a period of 90 (ninety) days, either of the Parties shall have the right to terminate this MOU by giving the other Parties notice of termination in writing.

(10) SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this MOU shall for any reason be held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability shall not affect any other provision thereof, and this MOU shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein. Any invalid or unenforceable provision of this MOU shall be replaced with a provision that is valid and enforceable and most nearly gives effect to the original intent of the invalid/unenforceable provision.

(11) ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This MOU constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes any and all prior negotiations, correspondence, agreements, understandings duties or obligations between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

(12) NO OTHER RIGHTS GRANTED

Nothing in this MOU is intended to grant any rights under any patent, copyright or other intellectual property rights of any Party in favour of the other, nor shall this MOU be construed to grant any Party any rights in or to the other Party's Confidential Information, except the limited right to use such Confidential Information in connection with the Project under this MOU.

(13) AMENDMENTS

Any change, alteration, amendment, or modification to this MOU must be in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both the Parties.

(14) DISPUTE RESOLUTION

(a) Any dispute(s) arising out of this MOU shall, as far as possible, be settled amicably between the Parties hereto failing which the following shall apply:

(b) The courts in _____ shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute, differences or claims arising out of this MOU.

(15) ANNOUNCEMENTS

A Party shall not make any news releases, public announcements, give interviews, issue or publish advertisements or publicize in any other manner whatsoever in connection with this MOU, the contents/provisions thereof, other information relating to this MOU, the Confidential Information or other matter of this MOU, without the prior written approval of the other Parties.

(16) NOTICES

Except as otherwise specified in this MOU, all notices, requests, consents, approvals, agreements, authorizations, acknowledgements, waivers and other communications required or permitted under this MOU shall be in writing and shall be deemed given when sent to the address specified in the title clause of this MOU.

Either Party may change its address for notification purposes by giving the other Party 10 working (ten) days notice of the new address and the date upon which it will become effective.

Report on

Industrial Visit to Atal Incubation Centre, International Institute of Information Technology - Hyderabad (AIC – IIITH)

By Dr. Satyabrata Singha, Assistant Professor, Bharat Institute of Engineering and Technology, Hyderabad

About AIC-IIITH:

AIC-IIITH FOUNDATION is a Section 8 company under the Companies Act, 2013. It was established in December 2018 by IIIT-Hyderabad in collaboration with Surge Impact Foundation as a Special Purpose Vehicle (SPV) for Atal Innovation Center for tech-based social enterprises and is supported by the Atal Innovation Mission, NITI Aayog, Government of India. IIIT-Hyderabad is a research university focused on information technology. Organized as a set of research centers, IIITH is widely regarded as a leading institution for computer science research in the country. Applied research is a major focus for the institute, with an active initiative around research-led innovation through its Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship (CIE). CIE runs one of the largest academic startup incubation endeavors in India started in 2008 with initial funding from DST and Meity. In 2018 started the MEDTEC Bionest with support from BIRAC. CIE also has a thrust on seeding new startups based on research through the Product Labs of the institute. And now in 2019, with support from NITI Aayog, started the AIC-IIITH to create a new incubator focused on startups leveraging technology to create social impact.

Facilities:

Co-Working Spaces

AIC offers co-working and premier office space for start-ups with facilities like meeting room, internet, and lounges. The startup space offers entrepreneurs excellent opportunities to nurture their ideas in an ecosystem, teaming with entrepreneurial and innovative energy and collaborate with other startups.

Events Room

A 150-seater space that can be used as a mini-auditorium to organize events, seminars, workshops, and other such collaborative melas

Teleconference Room

Coming soon a 50-seater room with teleconferencing facilities, specially designed for startups.

Learning /Outcome from the Industrial Visit:

- Participating in the ATAL Faculty Development Program's half-day industrial visit to Atal Incubation Centre (AIC) IIITH Foundation was a transformative experience. AIC FOUNDATION, dedicated to incubating tech-based social enterprises, stands at the intersection of entrepreneurial energy and technological innovation for societal impact. The visit unveiled the crucial role of the AIC Incubation Program in equipping startups with essential skills, mentorship, and a platform to pitch for seed funding.
- Despite the concise timeframe, the exploration of AIC-IIITH's 10,000 sq. ft space revealed a collaborative environment fostering innovation. The strategic location within the Centre for Innovation and Entrepreneurship (CIE), IIIT-Hyderabad, accentuated the multiplier effects of agglomeration and network effects within the vibrant incubation ecosystem.
- As a faculty participant, this visit provided firsthand insights into the practicalities of nurturing social enterprises. Witnessing the transformative potential of technology aligned with societal goals underscored the pivotal role of AIC-IIITH FOUNDATION. The visit serves as a source of inspiration, compelling me to integrate these insights into my teaching and mentorship roles, encouraging students to leverage technology for meaningful societal contributions. The industrial visit was not just a snapshot but an impactful encounter with the dynamic world of tech-driven social entrepreneurship.

Interaction with Startups:

We engaged with CANDIPHI, a health-tech startup focused on a groundbreaking software platform. The platform seamlessly integrates data from diverse medical devices via an exposed SDK and employs machine learning to analyze information, specifically targeting diabetic and cardiovascular illnesses. With a commitment to enhancing personalized healthcare, the startup envisions a future of proactive health management. Their innovative approach, leveraging real-time monitoring and predictive analysis, showcases a promising solution to revolutionize the treatment and understanding of these critical health conditions. The startup's dedication and technological advancements highlight its potential to reshape the landscape of digital health.
