MEHANDI BY STUDENTS IN MEHANDI CLUB

Just months ago, I watched the snow settle against the grass and subtly upon the trees, and I felt so closely the way it covered the leaves.
But after feeling how such beauty could still break me,
I let go of falling snow in search of summer's breeze.

So, my love, I simply cannot wait to lay with you during those burning days, where we'll just stare up into a sunlit sky until the moment the day decides to die and the stars find the strength to rise...

Because I'll then turn to you as our hearts begin to fly with our dreams, and I'll whisper these new seasons secrets about how your perfection saved me so perfectly.
